PRIMARY INTERVENTION PLAN

J.T. Moore Middle School’s Primary Intervention Plan: A Tiered Model of Support
Designed by PBS Team Members
Deloris Burke, Jeanette Senter, Ann Porter, Stephanie Brakefield, Anna Claire Brakefield, and Brenda Benefield

Mission Statement
The mission of J.T. Trotwood Moore Middle School is to provide a safe and secure learning environment that impels students to perform at or above grade level in reading, writing, and mathematics through teachers who challenge students, likewise developing students who accept personal responsibility and exhibit self-control.

Statement of Purpose
The purpose of JT Moore’s school intervention plan is for students to demonstrate and be reinforced for displaying school-wide expectations:
- Respect
- Responsibility / Preparedness
- Self-control
- Cooperation

Area I: Academic School-Wide Expectations
The student will:
- Be interactive in lessons
- Have materials
- Produce quality work
- Show progress
- Stay the whole day

The teacher will:
- Prepare engaging lessons
- Monitor tone in interactions
- Praise
- Be patient
- Have starter activities
- Be at school and on time
- Give timely academic feedback on regular basis to student & parents
- Teach grade level expectations
- Know district standards for the next year’s grade level
- Organize space, resources, and time
- Do not encourage early dismissals
- Communicate—frequent, simple, & brief

Area II: Discipline School-Wide Expectations
The student will demonstrate:
- Responsibility, preparedness, self-control, respect, and cooperation (See School Expectations grid)

The teacher will:
- Support the proactive/reactive plans

Area III: Social Skills School-Wide Expectations
The student will demonstrate:
- Responsibility, preparedness, self-control, respect, and cooperation (See School Expectations grid)

The teacher will demonstrate:
- Consistency in expectations and reinforcement
- Show appropriate respect for student—be a model!
- Use a positive tone

Procedures for Teaching

- • Form larger PBS committee
- • Kick-off assembly with introductory period of 6 weeks, then gradual fading out/reminders
- • Notebook/script for teachers to teach program first 10 minutes of homeroom during kick-off (first 2 weeks)
- • Planning Day or afternoon faculty meeting to present results of teachers’ survey to faculty.
- • Modeling the standard or expectation
- • Parent volunteer/participation
- • Share data that is collected regarding the PBS plan throughout the school community as it comes in

- • Posters, presentations, role playing, PowerPoint, skits, videos to be shown daily or weekly
- • Determine how best to include or get information to those not in attendance at meetings.
- • Re-teaching
- • Music and/or art classes produce short skits with students demonstrating negative behaviors, then a short skit on how the positive behavior would look. To be implemented in kick-off assembly and later on in videos

- • Art projects which allow students to gain knowledge according to their learning style. Ex: poster contests
- • Develop a multiple choice test of expectations and non-acceptable expectations.
- • Students could catch teachers supporting the plan and give teachers a coupon.
- • Drawings for students following plan.
- • Timeline of expectations

Procedures for Reinforcing

- • Individual time with teachers/principal
- • Tangibles, including refreshments
- • Social attention by faculty/teacher specific praise
- • Tickets

- • Grade level rewards
- • Opportunity to participate in video on morning announcements
- • Physical activity, such as earning intramural/field days

- • Teacher reinforcements—gift certificates for Parent-Teacher Store, Starbucks, etc.
- • Recognize teachers with Teacher of the Week.

Monitoring Procedures (measurement)

- • Attendance
- • Discipline Referrals
- • Ticket distribution/turn-in
- • TCAP scores

- • Tardies
- • Teacher and student surveys
- • Student Risk Screening Scale (SRSS)
- • Report Cards
