PBS – Positive Behavior Support

- Replaces undesirable behavior with new behavior or skill. (Walking safely in the hallways, good manners in lunch, etc.)
- Alters the environment. (red lines in the building, etc.)
- Teaches appropriate skills. (WALK & EAT)
- Rewards appropriate behavior. (Mustang Cards, lunchroom incentives)
- Consistent arrival/dismissal procedures

- Sadler PBS team: Christine Pankonin, Nancy Biddinger, Celeste Haas, Kevin Kuhta, Oscar Sanchez, Joanne Yates, Lorna Kitson
• Walk Quietly in Line
• Allow for Personal Space
• Look Forward
• Keep Hands & Feet to Yourself

- Students walk on the red lines inside the building
- All Sadler Staff are encouraged to recognize positive behavior of all students.
Each class enters with 0 points.

Points are earned throughout lunch.

Points are tallied each month. Classes that reach the goal earn an incentive.

Future incentives:

Jan: video time in classroom
Feb.: playground (FCAT season!)
March: photos of successful classes shown before morning news programs
April: popcorn
May: popsicles

Suggestions? Questions: Ask a PBS member or drop a question or comment in the PBS can located in the Oasis
Every Sadler Staff member is encouraged to recognize positive behavior of all students each day.

Mustang cards are found in the Oasis.

Suggested uses: completing assignments, acts of kindness, good manners in lunchroom or hallways, use by substitutes & special area teachers, etc.
