Lesson Plan for Teaching: Listen Well

1. Concept (Expectation)
   - Listen Well

2. Definition and Critical Attributes
   Being responsible, attentive & focusing on a given task or person. Critical Attributes: behaviors that help people to build on respect, confidence, positive choices, succeed & become friendlier and more cooperative. Learning can then enhance a more positive environment.

3. Examples
   - Maintaining eye contact
   - Being able to restate what was just stated
   - Staying on task
   - In control responsible and prepared

4. Non-Examples
   - Distracted, looking away, talking
   - Not being able to restate what was stated
   - Difficulty staying on task/playing with objects, desk, pencil, etc…
   - Not doing what group is doing/ difficulty following directions

5. Activities to Enhance Concept Development
   - Have students role model/act out examples that illustrate listening well

6. Activities to Check for Understanding
   - Have students restate what has been stated

7. Activities to Extend Concept Development
   - Keep frequency counts of listening well and graph results
